“ Carl was one of the first friends I made on my journey to getting back on my feet! We played pool together everyday talking about life and old memories. He was such an amazing person and a great friend to anyone he came to know! He will be greatly missed.

“ Whenever I went to visit my friend Josie Boulton as a young adult, Carl was always welcoming and kind. I didn't get to know him as well as I'd liked, but I certainly wish his family and friends peace and love. May good memories surround you in the times to come.

“ We enjoyed Carl stopping to visit when he'd make a little road trip in his bike or pickup. We always had a lot of catching up and just visiting to mull over. Rest In Peace Carl. (Gary and Shirley)

“ Several times Carl has called to talk to me, and that meant so much. He cared about people, and me, his aunt. I appreciate how he wanted to help people. I will miss him.

“ Carl started attending our Church on Sunday mornings during the virus health declaration. He continued to drop by even after the declaration was lifted. He helped fold bulletins and make coffee and watch the door - anything to be a Christ-like servant. We are saddened by his passing, but we believe God granted him an abundant entrance into His Heavenly Kingdom. We will see you there Carl!

“ I was so sorry to hear of Carl's passing. Carl was so good to come to our house to visit before we lost Joe. We enjoyed visiting with Carl out at church after he moved back into the area. I miss those visits after I was unable to go to church. I am now at Halcyon House. Rosamond Goodlander
