“ We knew Carl from our many years in Moline.
He was always fun to be around, smiling and teasing, on occasion . He was a loyal Deere employee as was brother Bill. Our impression of Carl was, "What you see is what you get"
What we saw in Carl was a positive kind man, a sports lover, especially the "Hawkeyes", and a great friend of our good friend, his brother, Bill.
God Bless Carl . You will be missed.
Fondly,

“ To Carl's family: Carl had so many good qualities. He was always very caring. I loved the way he laughed; this photo captures that charming smile of his. Carl added so much to my life. Sure he could sometimes be challenging {aren't we all}, but he was worth every moment of it! We grew together, even though we were in our "senior" years. Going to the grocery store on Saturdays, driving around {sometimes aimlessly} on Sundays, or eating popcorn while we TRIED to play Scrabble are just a few of the simple things we enjoyed together. I do, and will, miss Carl in so many ways
