“ Dear Karen and family: Karen and I have recently heard the news of David's passing. i was so hoping I could visit David soon. The lord needed him more. We wanted so bad to get home for David's memorial service but we are on a train returning from Portland. I woke up recently during the night and I started to think of all the things David and I did during our single years. We spent time at horse shows, trail rides and traveling the country. When David and I got married our families continued our friendships. Karen, Karen and I will get together with you in the near future. And David I will bid for you at the next horse sale! Rest In Peace our friend!
